If managed appropriately, Short Term Rentals such as Airbnb and VRBO can be very beneficial helpful for someone looking to supplement their income or provide a service to the community. They can also be a convenient, cost effective, and available alternate to hotels.

If the system is abused, they can also be a terrible burden to not just immediate neighbors, but a neighborhood, by excessive noise, a loss of community with unfamiliar faces, and parking problems.

The Planning and Zoning Commission was approached to potentially regulate these types of units. The purpose of this workshop is discuss this with the community at large. Please plan to attend the zoom or e-mail your comments to Katie.DeLuca@greenwichct.org.
