1. Old Business - Law Department –

COVID-19 Update

The Town Attorney updated the Committee on the Law Department operations under COVID-19 restrictions. The Law Department continues to operate relatively normally. Some staff work remotely and the number working remotely have increased from when COVID-19 restrictions were in place. There are some concerns from office administration on the timing of receiving notifications on COVID-19 updates and the Town Attorney has spoken to the Town Administrator to request more timely notifications.

The budget has been consistent throughout the pandemic and the Law Department is operating with one less attorney.

The Town Attorney has yet to shadow special education litigation to get a better understanding of what the issues and reasoning is behind settlements. He is still planning on looking at whether there is excess capacity in the Law Department to be able to handle more Board of Education work in-house.
