Christopher von Keyserling, Chairman of District 8, offered the following tribute to David Noble Theis:

David Noble Theis was a true Son of Cos Cob. As a third generation native, Mr. Theis not only treasured the many blessings of his hometown, but spent a large part of his life volunteering towards the continuation of those benefits for generations to come. He was the model of a gentleman: ever ready to give a hand where needed and always first to put one at ease. He was everyone’s best neighbor: concerned, knowledgeable, and present. Without an ego of his own, he relished the success of others. His pride was in his community and his country.

Dave, as he was known to all, was a true leader. First he led children in their maturing on the athletic field. He believed in playing by the rules and fair play. Then he led adults on the field of life, government, and community. He believed in supporting fully those who provided service and security to the public.

David Theis may not have agreed with all, but he gave all his respect and attention.

David Theis’ contributions to his town and country are too numerous to itemize here. But, they are writ large throughout all facets of our life and villages.

Above all else, David Noble Theis was a true friend to those who knew him, and to those he was yet to meet.

District Eight of the RTM moves that these comments be included in the Minutes of the Meeting as a model for future generations of a real Cos Cobian.

The Moderator moved this declaration be included in the minutes.
