$100,000 from Z345-59830 28137 Community Pool - Byram Capital non-recurring

Ms. Lavery introduced the project manager, Pamela Frame. The RTM has accepted a gift in an amount up to $100,000. The committee explained to Ms. Frame that the application should be changed to request the funds needed to be used from the gift. The application was changed to:

Appropriation:
$55,000 to Z345-59830 28137 Community Pool – Byram Capital Non-Recurring Fund
$55,000 from Z345-59830 28137 Community Pool – Byram Capital Non-Recurring Fund

Ms. Frame explained that the intention is to create a public/private partnership and according to their research the cost of the pool will be from 5 to 7 million dollars. These initial funds are to be used for research and site development to understand exactly how much the pool will cost.

The Committee voted 4-0 to approve the appropriation as amended subject to condition upon receipt of cash and forward it to the Board of Estimate and Taxation as a routine application.

Mr. Walko requested that the Budget Committee draft a policy regarding gifts and how they get approved through the Town.

Tax Abatement Ordinance

Ms. Ahmad reported that after meeting with the Law Committee, the Ordinance has been redrafted as requested by the Budget Committee at the February 2008 meeting. Ms. Barton stated that the Law Committee voted 2-0 to recommend it to the Budget Committee. Mr. Campbell noted one minor grammatical change that needs to be made. The committee requested that Mr. Gwartney present examples of the impact of this ordinance to the BET on Monday.

The Committee voted 4-0 to approve the document and forward it to the Board of Estimate and Taxation.
