OFFICER'S REPORT

Mr. Walko requested that during the upcoming RTM Budget month that all BET members commit to attend one RTM district meeting and a RTM standing committee meeting. On April 21, 2009 there will be a meeting with the First Selectman and the Fire Chief concerning the King Street station, which will be the first in a series of meetings. Also, regarding Nathaniel Witherell establishing a revolving fund, any questions should be sent to the Finance Department. The setting of the mill rate will be taken up at the May 2009 BET Regular meeting.

OLD BUSINESS

Online Access to Assessment Records

Mr. Gwartney reported that the majority of the feedback concerning online access to the Town's assessment records has been positive. Mr. Walko said that input from members of the community had made the BET rethink the issue.

Upon a motion by Ms. Tarkington, seconded by Mr. Simon, the Board voted 11-0-0 to terminate the contract with Manatron, Inc. in regard to providing online access to assessment records.

Blum Shapiro Contract for Option Years

Mr. Norton presented the Audit Committee's proposed resolution. A discussion followed concerning delegation of authority and expenditures.

Upon a motion by Mr. Finger, seconded by Mr. Ramer, the Board voted 11-0-0 to remove "Further resolved that the BET authorize the Audit Committee at its discretion to exercise for fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 the contract options with Blum, Shapiro & Company, P.C. to perform the Annual Audit for the Town of Greenwich, CT, and that these option exercises be completed in March of each successive year", from the original resolution.

Upon a motion by Mr. Norton, seconded by Mr. Finger, the Board voted 11-0-0 to approve the resolution as amended:

Resolved that the BET authorize the Audit Committee to exercise the contract option with Blum, Shapiro & Company, P.C. to perform the Annual Audit for fiscal year 2009 for the Town of Greenwich, CT.

NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Walko recognized Samuel Deibler from the Commission on Aging. Mr. Deibler voiced concern regarding the funding of a larger tax credit for the elderly tax relief program. Mr. Walko suggested that Mr. Deibler and the Commission work through the BET Special Project Team to address their concern. Mr. Walko stated that the limit for the elderly tax relief program will be set at the BET Regular May 18, 2009 meeting during the setting of the mill rate process.

ADJOURNMENT

Upon a motion by Mr. Kelly, the Board seconded by Mr. Ramer voted 11-0-0 to adjourn at 7:36 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
