

Audubon
GREENWICH

Oceans are Rising and so Are We

Small steps to combat climate change in your own yard

A Wednesday-Night Environmental Lecture Series on Climate Change at several locations in Greenwich, CT

Inspiring, empowering, and extremely educational!

- 10/2 EcoBeneficial Gardening: Boosting the Ecosystem in Your Own Yard (GBC)
- 10/9 Healthy Yards – Using Yard Waste to Improve Soil Health (ATC) **
- 10/16 What’s so Bad about Pesticides? (GBC)
- 10/23 New York’s Newest Immigrants: Coyotes in the Metro Area (GLT)
- 10/30 PFAS – Emerging Contaminants – What do You need to Know (GA)
- 11/6 Climate Change – What to Expect in Greenwich (GA)
- 11/13 Waste Management – Ecological and Economic Impacts (THMR)
- 11/20 Trends to Watch in the Energy Transformation of 2020 – What is There for You (BGCG)

Time: 7:00pm – 8:30pm, unless otherwise noted.  6:00-7:30pm

(GBC) Greenwich Botanical Center, 130 Bible St. (ATC) Arch Teen Center, 100 Arch Street (GLT) Greenwich Land Trust, 370 Round Hill Rd. (GA) Greenwich Audubon, 613 Riversville Rd. (THMR) Town Hall Meeting Room, 101 Field Point Rd. (BGCG) Boys and Girls Club of Greenwich, 4 Horseneck Ln.

Click Here for More Information Call Conservation 203-622-6461 or Email Conservation@GreenwichCT.org