

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information about preservation and the Town can be found in/at the following:

The Greenwich Historical Society web site: www.hstg.org

The Greenwich Historical Society has an excellent Archives. Please see their website for the days and hours the Archives are open to the public.

Publications:

Greenwich Neighborhood and Building Survey, Inc., Historic and Architectural Resources Inventory of the Town of Greenwich, Survey Director, Nils Kerschus. Surveys undertaken in the 1980s. Copies of the Survey can be found in the Reference department, Greenwich Library, Carley, Rachel, Building Greenwich: Architecture and Design, 1640 to the Present, Greenwich: The Historical Society of the Town of Greenwich, 2005.

Town of Greenwich, Plan of Conservation and Development, 2009, 1998, Can be purchased in the Planning and Zoning Office at Town Hall.

The Junior League of Greenwich, The Great Estates Greenwich, Connecticut 1880-1930; Canaan, New Hampshire: Phoenix Publishing, 1986, 1989, 2005.

Further information about preservation can be found at:

The Connecticut Trust for Historic Preservation, Hamden, CT www.cttrust.org

The National Trust for Historic Preservation, Washington, D.C. www.nthp.org