Dear Bianca,

My husband and I understand that tomorrow's meeting will be key for Palmer's application and we will ensure we are present to discuss.

We continue to be extremely concerned about the parking situation and have noted an increase in number of vehicles parked in front of our house as work seems to be finishing at Mrs Palmer's property. We cannot imagine this will get any better if the Mrs Palmer's application is accepted as we do not understand how 5 cars from different families/ appartements will be located in that space. We expect these cars will instead be on the street, most probably in front of our house thus increasing the potential for an accident in the turn into Farley Street.

We will ensure we will be present at tomorrow's call but wanted to take the opportunity of providing you with photographic evidence of cars parked just within the last 72h: the first is actually blocking our driveway, the second is in front of the stop sign, and my husband has a 3rd which I will forward shortly.

Many thanks again for your consideration.

Best,
Severine Blond & Kristian Eriksson
