Terms and Conditions for Online Filings of Ethics Disclosure Reports

Section 5 of the Code of Ethics of the Town of Greenwich provides for disclosure of certain financial interests by Town Officers, including all elected and appointed officials, Town employees and agents of and consultants to the Town. The ability to use the resources of the Town website for the online filing of disclosure reports is provided for the convenience of Town Officers only and any use of these resources by or for such Town Officers is limited to its intended purpose and subject to all applicable laws. Access and use by any other person or for any other purpose is prohibited and the Town reserves the right to pursue any and all violations of federal and State laws as a result thereof. Any user who is aware of the unauthorized use or misuse of these resources is responsible to notify the Director of the Town's Information Technology Department as soon as practicable.

BY USING THESE RESOURCES, PERSONS ACCESSING THEM AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS AS IN EFFECT AT THE TIME.

The content provided to the Town by the use of these resources is non-confidential and will be available to the general public. Users represent and warrant that they have the right to receive, use, transmit and disclose the information submitted, including information submitted on behalf of others, and that all Information submitted is true and accurate at the time of submission to the best of the user’s knowledge. Any information submitted on behalf of others must be duly authorized by them on the understanding that, by authorizing another to make a submission for them, they are agreeing to these Terms and Conditions.

Information provided through the Town’s ethics reporting system is intended for the use of the Town and the general public. It is to be collected and stored in accordance with the Town’s records and data retention policies and may be copied, reproduced consolidated, reformatted, summarized, transmitted, disclosed, displayed, exhibited reported on and otherwise used by the Town.

The Town accepts no responsibility for the content provided by or to users of these resources. Users bear the sole responsibility of evaluating the merits and risks associated with the use of content or any service or functionality provided. The Town may not be held liable for any claim for damages arising from any decision made based on such content or other information made available through these resources.

The Town specifically prohibits the following:

a. Submitting any incomplete, false or inaccurate information or information concerning another person that you have not been specifically authorized to submit by such other person;

b. Deleting or revising any content submitted by another user or uploading, posting, e-mailing or otherwise transmitting any information or other material protected by rights of privacy (as well as copyright or any other intellectual property right) without first obtaining the permission of the owner of such rights;
c. Aggregating, copying or duplicating in any manner any of the user submissions or other content, unless otherwise permitted;

d. Linking to any of the information available without the express and written consent of the Town;

e. Using the information provided by the Town or submitted by users to e-mail or otherwise transmit any advertising or promotional materials, including without limitation, "junk mail," "surveys," "spam," "chain letters," "pyramid schemes," or any other form of solicitation or unauthorized communication;

f. Uploading, posting, e-mailing or otherwise transmitting any material that contains viruses or any other computer code, files or programs which might interrupt, limit or interfere with the functionality of any computer software or hardware or telecommunications equipment;

g. Using any "deep-link", "page-scrape", "robot", "spider" or other automatic device, program, algorithm or methodology, or any similar or equivalent manual process, to access, acquire, copy or monitor any portion of the content, or in any way reproduce or circumvent the navigational structure of the resources provided or the presentation of any content or to obtain or attempt to obtain any materials, documents or information through any means not purposely made available.

h. Probing, scanning or testing the vulnerability of the resources, attempting to gain unauthorized access by hacking or any other illegitimate means or breaching the security measures on any connected network; and

i. Reverse looking-up, tracing or seeking to trace any information on any user to its source, or exploiting the resources made available in any way where the purpose is to reveal any personally identifying information about others unrelated to the purpose for which it was intended.

The use and retention of information related to this reporting system is also subject to the Town’s Privacy Policy, which may also be amended and revised from time to time according to its terms. The Town may amend these Terms and Conditions at any time by posting the amended Terms and Conditions on the Town website.
