Introduction
This is a brief guide to the two tax credit programs currently available to qualified Greenwich taxpayers 65 years of age and older. A tax credit is a reduction of taxes.

Local Senior Tax Credit
The Town of Greenwich administers a tax credit program for senior homeowners age 65 years of age or older, who meet the eligibility guidelines to receive a tax credit ranging from $636 to $2,417, dependent upon annual gross income. Qualified individuals are required to file every two years, but if there is a significant change in qualifying income, then individuals can re-apply between filing periods.

Applications are available and accepted between February 1st and May 15th, or the next business day if the 15th is a weekend.

Owners of condominiums and cooperative apartments are also eligible. The following qualifying income and credit amounts for both single and married applicants are as follows:
